

The Huts in the Hills

Glamping Holidays

Directions to the huts

The Huts can be located by SAT NAV via one of three routes.

Address Caemarchog, Llanigon, Via Hereford HR3 5RJ

During the winter months snow and ice are inevitable; access by road may not be possible and a short hike may be necessary! In the event of freezing conditions access via the Brecon route described below is normally the best maintained. Four wheel drive vehicles are a must!

From Brecon

From Brecon follow the A470 towards Builth Wells for approximately 4 miles, continue onto the A438 for Hereford, and follow signs for Hay-on-Wye. After passing Bronllys continue for approx 1.5 miles into Three Cocks still on the A438. Immediately after the Three Cocks Hotel turn right and follow the brown signs marked Tregoyd. Follow the signs for approx 1.5 miles until you reach a T-junction opposite the Tregoyd Trekking Centre and Tregoyd House PGL Centre. Turn Left and drive for approx 0.5 miles until reaching a cross roads, turn right towards Hay Bluff and Capel-y-Ffin. Follow this road for about 2 miles and signpost for Capel-y-Ffin Mountain Road. Carry on along this road, cross the Cattle grid and onto the open mountain. Continue for approx 1 mile until you see a post and rail fenced parking area on your left hand side (signposted Huts in the Hills).

Access to the huts

You MUST leave your vehicle in the designated parking area - whilst trying not to obstruct any gateways. Unload your belongings - access to the huts is by foot only - follow the defined route.

The Huts in the Hills

Glamping Holidays

Directions to the huts

Caemarchog can be located by SAT NAV via one of three routes.

Address Caemarchog, Llanigon, Via Hereford HR3 5RJ

During the winter months snow and ice are inevitable; access by road may not be possible and a short hike may be necessary! In the event of freezing conditions access via the Brecon route described below is normally the best maintained. Four wheel drive vehicles are a must!

From Hay on Wye

Access from Hay on Wye, is via a narrow road sign posted Capel- y-Ffin, Abergavenny. This is a single lane, road with passing places, and some steep inclines, carry on along this road for approximately three miles ignoring the left hand turning for Craswell. After reaching the open hill under Hay Bluff, continue on route for approximately 0.75 miles until sighting a large parking area on your right hand side. Turn right at the junction and continue for another mile, cross the twin streams and continue for another 0.25 miles until you see a post and rail fenced parking area on your left hand side (signposted Huts in the Hills).

Access to the huts

You MUST leave your vehicle in the designated parking area - whilst trying not to obstruct any gateways. Unload your belongings - access to the huts is by foot only - follow the defined route.

The Huts in the Hills

Glamping Holidays

Directions to the huts

Caemarchog can be located by SAT NAV via one of three routes.

Address Caemarchog, Llanigon, Via Hereford HR3 5RJ

During the winter months snow and ice are inevitable; access by road may not be possible and a short hike may be necessary! In the event of freezing conditions access via the Brecon route described below is normally the best maintained. Four wheel drive vehicles are a must!

From Abergavenny

From Abergavenny follow the A465 for approx 4 miles towards Hereford, turn left for Llanvihangel Crucorney. Take a left turn for Llanthony and Capel-y-Ffin follow this road for approx 15 miles; you will pass through, Cwmyoy, Llanthony and Capel-y-Ffin on route. After Capel-y-Ffin follow signs for Hay on Wye, after approx 5 miles of climbing you should be starting the decline along the Gospel pass with Hay bluff to your right. Carry on until you see a left hand junction just before a large car park, take this turning left and continue for another mile, cross the twin streams and continue for another 0.25 miles until you see a post and rail fenced parking area on your left hand side (signposted Huts in the Hills).

Access to the huts

You MUST leave your vehicle in the designated parking area - whilst trying not to obstruct any gateways. Unload your belongings - access to the huts is by foot only - follow the defined route.